Psalms 1:1-3 HSB

Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers. But his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers.

How about some thoughts about your character as it relates to Psalms 1:1-3.

Talk to yourself.

- How much time do you spend with God? Hmm?
- What path did you take last week? What are your plans for this week and next week? Will you meditate day and night?
- What lesson did you learn from taking one of the above paths?
- Ok – let’s look to the future. Are you planning to water the tree (you)? Or are you letting it go dry. Choices! Choices!

QUOTES:

Warren Wiersbe:

Before God changes our circumstances, He wants to change our hearts.

D. I. Moody:

Character is what you are in the dark.

BOTTOM LINE:

What does my character have to do with God? Who truly know me....especially at home, work, social gatherings, friends and for that matter - church? Find yourself by spending time with the Lord. Come on. You can give Him at least ten minutes. Ok... now read the following scriptures....great godly stuff.

Scriptures to read:

- Proverbs 10:9 (crooked paths verses firm footing)
- Romans 5:3-4 (it all goes together – troubles, patience and hope)

What I have learned from all this? Write your thoughts down. Don't wait until next week. Do it now.

Now....THAT'S THE BOTTOM LINE.
